

LIMITED WARRANTY

Gate House Furniture's product coverage is reflective of our commitment to our customers. Our warranty extends to the original owner; and is part of our commitment to our customer's satisfaction.

Coverage

For the first year that you own your product, Gate House Furniture will replace any items that are defective in materials or workmanship, including any structural defects (such as defective straps, legs, folding mechanisms). We will not cover damage resulting from wear and tear that is not the result of defects in materials or workmanship. Other damages not covered are damage resulting from abuse, cosmetic damage (such as scratches or stains) and incidental or consequential damages, such as damage caused by the improper usage of our product.

Proof of Purchase

Proof of purchase is required to be eligible for warranty coverage. Additionally, this will serve as proof that your purchase was made through an authorized Gate House Furniture retailer.

Feel free to contact Gate House Furniture anytime for any additional warranty questions.
